Dear Parishioners & Friends

A few weeks ago, when some children from St Anne's Primary School were at Mass, I asked them if they had noticed that the priest wears different coloured vestments at various times of the year. They began to tell me what the colours were and when I asked them why they were different I was taken aback when one boy answered immediately that the different colours represented the seasons that are celebrated according to the liturgical year! I think that boy was 8.

We are now at the end of the Easter season and are in the days between the feast of the Ascension which we celebrated on Thursday, and Pentecost next Sunday, the coming of the Holy Spirit. In one sense, we are stepping into our futures, taking with us the events in Jesus' life and his teaching, because the season of the 'ordinary time of the year' continues from Pentecost until Advent at the end of the year.

What we are doing over the Church's year is to walk with Our Lord through his lifetime, from the heralding of the coming of the Christ with John the Baptist, through His birth and growing up, to his death, resurrection and ascension; and then we live out the reality of the mystery of Jesus' life and death on earth. It is a pattern which we celebrate every day, but the liturgical seasons help us to focus on particular aspects of the mystery of our relationship with the Trinity. We are blessed to have these 'liturgical nudges' to enable us to grow in our faith and thereby come closer to God. The major seasons up to now provide nourishment for the months ahead.

CAN YOU HELP?

An Appeal for Photographs of St. Anne's Parish

On the Family Fun Day on 16th July, (details in this bulletin), there will also be displays of photographs in the Pastoral Centre.

We do already have some photos of events of the past and present, but we would love to show more of how it used to be in St. Anne's parish. Do you have photographs of First Communion groups, May processions, Parish gatherings and visitations?

If anyone has some gems hidden away, would you be willing to lend them to us? We wouldn't need to display the original photographs as they would be photocopied to put on boards for people to see. The originals would be returned to their owners as soon as possible.

If you are able to help, could you put your photographs in an envelope and leave them in the safe hands of the Parish Office? Please include your name and contact details for the envelope to be returned. Any information to go with the photos would be much appreciated. People are fascinated by times past, and it would be lovely to be able to share your memories with them.
