FAMILY FUN AFTERNOON. THANK YOU.

It was good to see another of our summer events taking place last Saturday at the Family Fun afternoon. Thank you to everyone who took part whether by providing a stall, organising an activity, loaning so many memorable photos, ensuring refreshments were on tap – and most importantly, by coming along to take part and show your support.

The archery and go carts were well patronised as was the silent disco and five-a-side. But maybe the biggest queue was at the ice cream van!

As well as the children enjoying climbing into the cab of the fire engine, hopefully the bride and groom, married that afternoon, enjoyed having their photo taken alongside the fire crew.

And all this to the sound of the Ormskirk Ukulele Band and then John Brindle's solo performance.

The stalls show-cased the variety of activities going on within the parish and hopefully my few stitches helped the striking parish quilt on the road to its completion.

Congratulations to those who were successful in the raffle for the beautiful flower arrangements and, of course, many congratulations too to everyone who planned, prepared for and finally tidied away after our family event.

This was another occasion when our Benedictine hospitality, aided by the presence of the school and street pastors, proved once again to be central to the life of our Benedictine parish.

Farewell to Brother Cassian

With Brother Cassian having returned to Douai for a few weeks before going back to Rome, a card containing a contribution towards books and a print of St Anne's church were presented to him, on behalf of parishioners.

It has been a pleasure sharing something of parish life with Brother Cassian and in return to learn a little about his life as a student in Rome and a Benedictine monk in Tanzania.

We wish him well for the future and promise to remember him in our prayers.

St Anne's News

To all Pastoral Centre Users: Please ensure that all doors are locked, and all lights are switched off before leaving the pastoral centre.

UCM meeting tomorrow, 25th - last meeting before our summer break.

Found: A cycle helmet found outside the pastoral centre was passed into the parish office on Monday.

Flowers in church for weddings and funerals: Because people have asked what to do about flowers for these occasions it's worth reminding the parish about our custom. If special flowers are required for wedding as and funerals, please make arrangements yourselves. Our own volunteer florists provide flowers only for Masses at the weekends and for special feasts.
