Dear Parishioners and Friends

I found this psalm, 29, very helpful recently. I find that my moods affect my prayer, or is it the other way round? Somewhere in the psalms there always seems to be an answer to how I am at a particular time; such is the richness of the psalms.

Godric OSB

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, I cried for your help
And you, my God have healed me.
O Lord you have raised my soul from the dead,
Restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
Give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment; his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

I said to myself in my good fortune:
"Nothing will ever disturb me."
Your favour had set me on a mountain fastness,
Then you hid your face and I was put to confusion.

To you, Lord, I cried,
To my God I made appeal:
"What profit would my death be, my going to the grave?
Can dust give you praise or proclaim your truth?"

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,
You removed my sackcloth and girdled me with joy.
So my soul sings psalms to you unceasingly.
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.
